CRIM. 108

The Fresno County Sheriff's Department has been training the CSUF 108's for over 30 years. During this time, hundreds of this nation's law enforcement officers have attended this highly hands-on course. Subject matter experts provide the most up-to-date professional training in the state. The Crim 108 class is a must-take course!

EQUIPMENT IS PROVIDED

Several agencies look for the Crim 108 name when hiring new officers. 108 reserves are known for their on-the-job experience they have received through the Fresno County Sheriff's Department.

All equipment is provided for the classes including: weapons, ammo, books, and shooting range safety equipment. Once you are sworn in with the Fresno County Sheriff's Department, all of your law enforcement equipment will be issued to you.

TAC HOUSE

Tactical training is conducted several times during the course.

Using simulated weapons, instructors teach students in searching, armed suspect calls and family disturbances. These scenario training sessions keep the training realistic.

CLASSROOM

The 108 unit meets two nights a week to provide both hands-on training and classroom instruction. Classroom instruction is held at the Sheriff's Department Training Center. The Training Center has two classrooms and houses the training staff for the department. Free parking and near-by restaurants, along with a lunch room, add to the classroom environment. All the instructors are POST certified and experienced law enforcement trainers.

WORK EXPERIENCE— JOBS

108 reserves are able to work paid jobs at the Sheriff's Department, such as:

- Patrol
- Boating Enforcement Unit
- Hospital shifts
- Transportation
- Sheriff Activity League

If you are serious about getting a law enforcement job, this course is for you. All students who have attended the 108 class have related this experience as having one of the largest impacts in laying a foundation for their career. Don't leave Fresno State without taking this exciting training course.
