

Meditation crime project

The chart shows the number of homicides, rapes and assaults compared to the projected number of those crimes in Washington, D.C., during the first eight months of 1993. The chart shows about an 18 percent decrease in crime in August during a meditation period.

Sources: Actual crimes: The District of Columbia Metropolitan Police Department.
Projections: The Institute of Science, Technology and Public Policy in Fairfield, Iowa. The institute is associated with a university founded by Maharishi Mahesh Yogi.
