21st Annual Double Reed Day

Mingjia Liu • Oboe
Rufus Olivier, Jr. • Bassoon

February 3, 2018
California State University, Fresno • Department of Music

Coordinators: Rachel Aldrich, oboe (559) 246-1079 raldrich@csufresno.edu
Larry Gardner, bassoon (559) 259-9081 larryg@csufresno.edu

Mingjia Liu joined the San Francisco Opera as Principal Oboe in 2010. Recognized for his charismatic performing skill and "singing ability" on the instrument, he is currently the youngest Principal Oboist of all the professional orchestras in the United States. Recognized not only for his outstanding performing skills, Mingjia Liu is gaining considerable recognition as a teacher both in the United States and abroad. He continues to show his enthusiasm for education through this genre as can be attested by his recent invitation from the Central Conservatory of Music to give both recitals and master classes at the First Beijing International Oboe Festival.

Rufus Olivier, Jr. Rufus Olivier is the principal bassoonist with the San Francisco Opera and the San Francisco Ballet. At 21 years of age he became a bassoonist with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra before moving to his current positions with the Opera and Ballet. In addition to teaching at Stanford, Mr. Olivier is also instructor of bassoon at Mills College and Sonoma State University.

The 21st Annual Double Reed Day is designed for oboe and bassoon players of all ages and abilities (beginning to advanced players). The public is invited to attend the concert; $10 general, $5 senior & student. Admission to individual sessions is $15. Fee for pre-registration for the entire Double Reed Day is $40. There will be no late registration this year. Double Reed Ensemble music will be available at registration, and all are encouraged to participate in the ensemble during the evening recital.
